President Will Be On TV And Radio Twice Friday; Coming To Farm Monday

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower will address the nation briefly on television and radio when he checks out of Fitzsimons Army Hospital Friday and again when he arrives in Washington that afternoon.

The Denver remarks—the President's first to the country after seven weeks of hospital convalescence—will be at Lowry Air Force Base a moment before he walks up the 17-step ramp to his private plane, Columbine III.

And his equally informal talk in Washington will be at the Military Air Transport Terminal at National Airport when he steps from the plane there.

Coming Here Monday
Eisenhower's doctors announced here yesterday he will leave the hospital Friday. He will spend the weekend resting up in the White House after arrival in the capital, then journey by automobile Monday to his farm at Gettysburg, Pa., for a further recovery period of perhaps six weeks.

No specific time has been announced yet for the President's departure from Denver or for arrival in Washington. The major TV and radio networks are planning "live" coverage of his remarks to the nation.

The White House made no immediate announcement on the nature of the chief executive's projected remarks, but indications are he will express personal thanks for the flood of "get well" messages he received from all over the world, and for the prayers offered for his recovery.

Plan Warm Farewell
Indications are, too, the President will get a warm farewell from the people of Denver when he travels from the hospital to Lowry Air Force Base Friday morning—and a warm welcome home when he arrives in Washington.

There is a good deal of information available about the going-home ceremonies, but still none at all on the big political question of the moment—Eisenhower's 1956 plans.

The President's doctors said it will be late January or early February before he can make a sound decision—solely from the standpoint of his physical condition—on whether to seek reelection.

Dr. Paul Dudley White, the famed Boston heart specialist, and Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, Eisenhower's personal physician, made that prediction at a news conference yesterday.

Decision Must Wait
White did suggest that the President may already have made up his mind about whether to run again, but the doctor also said the chief executive would have to wait until January or February to make any decision based on whether his heart could stand the strain of another four years in the White House.

Such a decision, White said, will have to come "after he has exposed himself to considerable more strain than he has yet." An annual period of strain comes in late December and early January when the President and his aides

Prowler's New Story Backs Mrs. Woodward's Version Of Tragic Shooting Of Husband

MINEOLA, N. Y. (AP) — A prowler, who at first denied being on the estate of William E. Woodward Jr. the night of his shotgun death, now says he was breaking into the house at the time.

Paul W. Wirths' new version of his activities in the early morning of Oct. 30 was reported by Nassau County police officials yesterday.

The new account supports on some points the story given by beautiful, blonde Ann Woodward, who said she thought she was shooting at a prowler when she killed her wealthy sportsman husband.

Awakened By Noise
Mrs. Woodward, 39, who has been in a hospital under a doctor's care for shock and grief since the day of the shooting, told police a noise woke her around 2 o'clock that Sunday morning and deep-seated fear of a prowler panicked her into shooting blindly into a darkened hall.

Her 35-year-old husband was standing across the hall at the door of his bedroom and caught a blast of gunshot on the side of his

SHAUB TO SPEAK AT LAST MAN'S CLUB DINNER

Daniel Shaub, Pennsylvania department adjutant of the American Legion, will be the speaker Thursday evening at the annual dinner of the Last Man's Club, Lawrence M. Oyler, president of the group, announced Monday evening at the meeting of the Albert J. Lentz post of the American Legion at the post home on Baltimore St.

The dinner will be served at the American Legion home at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening. The Last Man's club, which began with a membership of 100, now comprises less than 40 members. All are World War I veterans.

Plans were also announced for a special Veterans Day program to be held Thursday afternoon at Gettysburg High School for the junior high school students under direction of Jacob M. Sheads. Sheads said the Honor Guard of the local post will participate. The senior high school students will be released to attend the national American Legion Veterans Day program in the National Cemetery Friday morning.

Gifts For Veterans
A letter was read from Mrs. Charles H. Clarke Sr., Thurmont, known as "Mother Clarke," who since 1942 has taken gifts to wounded veterans at Christmas time. The local post will provide her with some of the gifts for the veterans. Mrs. Clark last Christmas delivered gifts from the local post and other American Legion units to a number

Town Is Ready For President

Except for the "stir of reporters and photographers accompanying President Eisenhower when he travels from Washington to Gettysburg on Monday to continue his convalescence at his Gettysburg farm it will be business "as quietly as usual" here. No plans have been made for any extra celebration that President Eisenhower is well enough to return to his home. "Naturally the local citizenry is overjoyed by his continued improvement, but demonstrations are considered out of order," one resident said.

During the President's stay here, Sherman Adams, assistant to the President, and the President's private secretary will have offices in the Gettysburg Post Office.

At the Eisenhower farm the President's putting green on the east side of the house has been put in first class order by experts in hopes that Mr. Eisenhower will be able to take a few practice swings before his stay is completed. According to the President's physicians he should be able to do a little putting shortly after he returns home.

The President will leave the Denver hospital on Friday and fly back east. He will come to Gettysburg from Washington on Monday. Mrs. Eisenhower's birthday.

Every Gettysburg resident will be asked to donate $1 or more toward the Community Chest in a special one-night "Buck-Night" campaign to be held next Monday evening.

Meeting Monday evening at the YWCA, the board of directors of the Community Chest made plans for the special canvass during which the Chest hopes to raise $5,837.90, the amount still needed to reach the goal of $19,700 to support six local organizations.

Members of various services clubs of the community will take part in the special campaign. John C. "Buck" Stahl told the Chest directors.

The U. S. Air Force famed "Singing Sergeants" will provide the musical background for the National American Legion Veterans' Day program here Friday morning at 11 o'clock, according to reports presented Monday evening at a meeting of the local committee in charge following the meeting of the Albert J. Lentz American Legion post at its home on Baltimore St.

SUIT IS FILED BY JOHN NULL

John M. Null, octogenarian Hanover R. 3 resident, has entered an action in equity with the county court against two relatives, Clinton F. and Clara E. Null, New Oxford R. 1, whom, he claims, owe him $7,368.81.

According to the complaint filed for Null by Attorney Donald M. Swope, Null was residing with Clinton F. and Clara E. Null over a period of time. In January, 1950, the complainant charges that he gave Mrs. Null a check for $5,000 which he asked her to place in a bank account for him. He lists other amounts to Mrs. Null asking her to place the sums in the bank for him. The amounts total $7,368.81.

Unknown to him, Null said, Mrs. Null placed the money he gave her in a joint account and then, he said, withdrew all of the money. His attorney said Null discovered the loss when he was asked to move out of the home of Clinton and Clara E. Null. When he went to write a check on his supposed account to pay the people with whom he had moved he found the money missing. The complaint alleges that Clinton F. and Clara E. Null converted all but $400 of the total amount to their own purposes.

SPEAKERS CITE PUBLIC DUTIES TO EDUCATION

"Everyone has a direct responsibility in education," Kenneth H. Kirby, of the Caterpillar Tractor Co., York, told the Gettysburg Rotary Club and approximately 60 Gettysburg school teachers who were their guests at dinner Monday evening in Trinity Evangelical Reformed Church banquet hall.

H. Edgar Riegle, county superintendent of schools, introduced the speaker, who told the group: "The teachers have an investment in education, in their time, their training, and their skills, but they also have the responsibility of all persons to the schools. They are not only teachers, they are part of society and have society's responsibility to the schools."

"The schools exist to preserve democracy and hence the non-professionals, the great mass of people, have a definite and important responsibility toward the schools. If the schools are to preserve democracy then all must be interested."

Public Investment

"Taxes represent the investment of the general public in the schools and it represents a very large investment. The public not only has a responsibility to pay the cost of education, it also has a responsibility toward seeing how good a product it gets for its money."

Rotary President Philip M. Jones presided at the meeting. Paul Grove, president of the Gettysburg branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, introduced Dr. Lloyd C. Keefauver, Miss Ruth McIlhenny and others on the teachers committee which arranged for the joint session with the Rotary Club.

GTC WILL HELP DECORATE TOWN FOR CHRISTMAS

The Gettysburg Travel Council will join the Retail Merchants Association in erecting the community Christmas decorations the board of directors of the organization decided Monday evening at a meeting in Banker's Restaurant.

The council voted $100 toward new decorations and President Allen Larson named Glenn Little and Walter B. Lane as the committee with the Retail Merchants in placing the lights.

Ministers of the town will be asked whether the choir will assemble on the night the lights are turned on early in December to sing a program of Christmas carols.

Secure Other Aid
Assistance of high school departments in some of the work connected with the Christmas decorations was promised by Principal Guile W. Lefever, President Larson reported.

Progress was reported on the cleaning and renovation of the former Railway Express office in the Western Maryland station, Carlisle St., which has been rented by the Travel Council. The Council hopes to be able to open the office as a tourist center during the winter months when the Information Booth is closed.

Plans were made to prepare a kit for presentation to the reporters visiting here with the President, giving maps of the area and pertinent information about the community and its background.

27-Year-Old Southern Woman Is Charged With Poisoning Two Brothers, 6 And 7 Years Old

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A 27-year-old woman, who police said threatened "to get even somehow," was in jail today booked with murder in the poison deaths of two little boys.

William Baughman Jr., 7, and his six-year-old brother Lawrence, died within hours of each other Oct. 13. The Orleans Parish coroner at the time ruled they died of accidental poisoning, caused by eating phosphorous poison, used in rat and roach control campaigns.

Mrs. Mary Moss Falcon, of Violet, La., was booked with murder last night in connection with the death of the boys. Mrs. Falcon was the rent collector at the house in which the Baughman family lived. Officers said Mrs. Falcon had a quarrel with Mrs. Helen Baughman in September, promising to "get even somehow."

Officers said Mrs. Falcon was booked with murder as provided

Gettysburg's borough council, after hearing Charles B. Bender assert that "Gettysburg will be seen throughout the world as it is this Christmas," voted Monday evening to purchase up to $200 worth of equipment for the town's Christmas decorations, pay for the electricity for the lights and provide borough workmen to help put up the decorations.

Council was asked to make a "substantial" donation by the Gettysburg Association of Clubs in a letter read at the opening of the session, and was also asked to take over leadership in future years in handling the Christmas decorations.

Bender and John Pitzer represented the Retail Merchants Association which had placed the lights in prior years.

Asked For $500
Queried by councilmen what they thought would be a fair donation by council, Bender and Pitzer asked $500 toward this year's decorations.

Several councilmen declared that "taxpayer's money" should not be spent for Christmas decorations. Others said, "We should put it in the paper and let the public express its opinion on whether we should spend the money." Those favoring an appropriation also favored the newspaper poll. Those opposed to the expenditure held such a poll "would not be representative of the general feeling of the taxpayers."

There were some indications that the borough may take over the Christmas lighting next year, and impose a special assessment on the merchants in the central part of the community to pay for it.

Oppose Using Taxes
Some councilmen, principally President H. M. Oyler and John Fox said that the "merchants who derive the most benefit from the Christmas lights should pay for them, and not the taxpayers' money."

Bender and Pitzer, president of the Retail Merchants Association, held that "the merchants will make just as much money if Christmas lights are not put up in town. They'll sell Christmas presents anyway. Probably the merchants do derive a large income at Christmas time, but the town's lights are for all the people."

Bender argued, "Don't you want to be proud of Gettysburg, to show it off? This year, especially, the Christmas decorations will be a big thing for Gettysburg. People throughout the nation are going to see Gettysburg as it appears this Christmas time. They already spent $250,000 in Gettysburg, mostly to provide the facilities to show off Gettysburg to the world because the President will be here."

Cites Other Cities
"Why should we lack faith in our community. Other towns spend $4,000 or $5,000 but they have a larger number of merchants. Our situation is unusual, particularly this year. Are we going to let ourselves and the nation down?" President Oyler said, "Everybody is agreed that the town should have (Continued On Page 2)

under the state's criminal code without clarification. The boys lived with their parents and five other children in one room. Their only subsistence was a $7-a-week allowance given by a Catholic church. Neighbors said they begged for pennies and food and they frequently scavenged through garbage cans in search of something to eat.

Mrs. Falcon, whom police said also used the aliases "Mary Jackson" and "Mrs. William Hart," lost her job shortly after the quarrel with Mrs. Baughman. She reportedly left for Violet the day the boys died.

Mrs. Baughman, who said she tore Mrs. Falcon's blouse off during the quarrel, said Mrs. Falcon wagged a finger in her face and warned, "I'll get even with you somehow."

Council Delayed By Lack Of Quorum

Borough Council had a "full house" in everything but councilmen Monday evening. When council was scheduled to begin its session in the engine house at 7:30 o'clock there were 16 visitors, borough secretary, treasurer, solicitor, chief of police, burgess and two newspaper reporters present.

The only thing that delayed the meeting was the fact that only four of the nine councilmen were present.

To get a quorum, councilmen telephoned other members, finally securing Councilman James Shenk, who had been delayed enroute to the meeting, and the session started 20 minutes late.

A motorcycle operated by John E. Nicholson, 32, Columbia, and an automobile driven by George L. McMaster, 48, McSherrystown, figured in a collision in McSherrystown, at 4:25 p.m. Sunday.

McSherrystown Chief of Police Manard Masemer said Nicholson was starting to pass the car just as McMaster began a left turn off Min St. into Fifth St. Damage to the motorcycle amounted to $125 and to the car, $85. No one was hurt.

better Christmas lighting, but not by public funds. I don't think it fair to ask the borough to take over. The people in the outlying districts of the town would be taxed and not get any benefit from it. Other communities around us have better lights, we have been cheated on our Christmas lights for years because the merchants don't want to make a reasonable donation." Councilman Fox declared, "I'm opposed because I know of a merchant, in the very central part of town, who gets a maximum benefit from the lights, who only gave $2 last year. Besides it is not in the budget and we have a tight budget this year."

Councilman James Shenk argued, "I think you overlook civic pride. I think we can help. I think the lights are beneficial to the entire community."

Reports at the meeting indicated that council spent $147 for the current used by the Christmas lighting last year and provided three men to help the electrician to put up and take down the decorations. The Retail Merchants Association spent approximately $600 to pay the electrician and purchase bulbs, etc., for the decorations. Bender claimed many of the strings of lights "have worn out after 15 to 20 years of use and we need new ones to replace them."

Mrs. Forrest Craver Jr., representing the planning commission, declared that council should help pay for this year's Christmas decorations. Members of the St. Francis Xavier Mothers club also favored the town helping to pay for the special Christmas lighting. President Oyler said that the speakers were not "representatives of the borough."

COUNCIL SEEKS CROSSING LIGHT FROM RAILROAD

Borough Solicitor Eugene V. Bulleit was directed by town council at its meeting Monday evening in the engine house to write to the Western Maryland Railway asking a signal light at the Fourth St. crossing of the railroad after council learned that a train had struck a car there last month.

Engineer Winebrenner reported work progressing on Long Lane, and said that the "last 300 feet up to Gettys St." will be completed in "two to three weeks."

A request was received from representatives of the Colored Citizens Cemetery that council not ask them to place a sidewalk along the length of their cemetery on Long Lane, in exchange for surrender of a 15-foot strip by the association to the borough for Long Lane. They were assured that "the present council has no intention of forcing you to place a sidewalk there. And the council members who hold over for the next council will carry that idea with them. But we cannot tie up future councils. A similar request will have to be made to each new council."

New Snow Area

Council agreed to remove snow from in front of St. Francis Xavier Church and school on W. High St. because five buses bring children to Xavier Grade School and two other buses take children to Delone High School, McSherrytown.

In event of an emergency some meters on Baltimore St. will be covered to permit buses to load and unload there until the snow is removed on High St.

The ordinance establishing Long Lane as a borough street was approved. Council last month tentatively adopted the ordinance, but could not give final approval before 30 days' notice had elapsed.

Approval was given to placing of street lights on Hay St. extended and on Howard Ave. at Prince St. In response to a request by Richard Harner council gave assurance that Barlow St. extended will be built. It is already stoned up to Harner's property, and council said with five new houses being built there, it plans to extend the street, possibly placing stone this year, and completing the work probably next summer.

Other Business

Burgess William G. Weaver was instructed to have the west side of Liberty St. painted with a yellow line on the curb along a portion of the street to permit unloading. Purchase of tires costing $222.74 for the borough tractor was approved.

Councilman Philip Jones reported the state will make a survey of traffic conditions in Gettysburg and on the roads leading to it next June, July and August providing the borough will agree to pay $500 toward the estimated $20,000 cost of the survey. The survey will determine traffic on the roads leading to Gettysburg, where the vehicles go after they are in Gettysburg and how they leave the community. It will also determine parking habits and the flow of traffic in the borough. Council decided to postpone decision until the December meeting.

known to have been operating in the estate-dotted section of Long Island's North Shore. He was held on a burglary charge not connected with the Woodward case.

He first told police he broke into the Woodward garage and swimming pool bathhouse several days before the shooting but on that night was creeping around a nearby country club.

Then yesterday Wirths asked to speak to a detective and authorities said he told this story:

On that Saturday night Wirths hung around the 12-room Woodward house at Oyster Bay, occasionally peering in the windows. He didn't keep close tabs on the time, but figured it was sometime between 11 p.m. and 2 a.m., that a man and woman drove up and walked from the garage to the house.

Returning From Party

This was very likely the Woodwards who returned from a party for the Duchess of Windsor around 1 a.m.

Wirths then saw lights go on in various parts of the house. This would fit Mrs. Woodward's report she and her husband, fearing someone might break in, had inspected all parts of the house before retiring in separate bedrooms with loaded shotguns at hand.

After all lights were out for some time, Wirths climbed a tree onto the roof terrace directly above the Woodwards' first floor bedrooms.

Broken Tree Branch

A branch of the tree broke under his weight, he said, and police reported finding the broken branch when Wirths was taken back to the 60-acre estate to reenact his movements.

Wirths found a glass-paneled door leading from the roof into an unoccupied guest room. It was unlocked but dampness made it sticky and caused a noise when he forced it open.

When the door was flung open, a curtain blew out and swept across Wirths' face, startling him and causing him to knock a shotgun he was carrying against the building.

He paused a moment and was

PRISONER HOLDS SOCIAL WORKER; SHOT IN MOUTH

PHILADELPHIA (P)—A 54-year-old prisoner was shot by a police sharpshooter yesterday at Holmesburg Prison after he held a razor blade to the throat of a social worker more than two hours.

Police reconstructed the situation this way:

Charles Savage, 54, was in prison for parole violation. He has a police record dating to 1926.

Savage called David Kaplan, 45, supervisor of social work at the prison, into his cell. Kaplan was in the cell only a few moments with the door closed but not locked when Savage whipped out the razor blade and grabbed Kaplan.

"Slit His Throat"

Savage held the blade at Kaplan's throat and kept saying he would "slit his throat" unless freed. Prison officials pleaded with Savage to release the hostage — to no avail.

Finally, they summoned Lt. Edward Nelson, 50-year-old firearms training supervisor at the police academy. He shot Savage in the mouth, the bullet flying barely over the head of Kaplan. Savage apparently was unaware of Nelson's presence.

The shot was fired through an opening in the cell door no more than eight inches square. Doctors said the bullet crashed through Savage's mouth and lodged in the back of his head.

He was taken to Philadelphia General Hospital where attendants today reported his condition as satisfactory.

Just stepping into the room when he heard the gunfire downstairs. He thought it was fired at him.

"It sounded like a cannon, I didn't wait. I got the hell out of there," he told police.

He said he jumped from the roof to the ground and fled. When police doubted he could make the nearly 20-foot leap without injury, he offered to do it again. The offer was declined.

Oklahoma Is Voted Top Team In Country, First This Year; Terps Second

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Oklahoma, a latter day power in college football, took over as the No. 1 team in the Associated Press poll today, much in the same style as the 1950 club brought the Sooners their one and only national championship.

It's the first time Coach Bud Wilkinson's crew has held the top rating this season, although they've been near the top in each of the seven previous weekly polls. Similarly, Oklahoma's 1950 champs didn't make the top in the weekly poll until Nov. 21. On the next to last ballot of the season.

Oklahoma's new role adds even more luster to the Orange Bowl clash which undoubtedly will send the Sooners against Maryland—the club they ousted from the No. 1 spot.

Maryland Is Second

Maryland, even by extending its winning streak to 13 games by beating Louisiana State 13-0 last weekend, couldn't cope with the shift in favor among the nation's sportswriters and sportscasters that gave Oklahoma a whopping 115 first place votes in the heaviest balloting of the season. The Terps who had 74 last week, pulled in 89 from the 283 ballots cast in this week's poll.

On a point basis, however, the Sooners—who ran their winning string to 26 by whipping Missouri 20-0 Saturday—had a much smaller edge over Maryland. On the basis of 10 points for first, 9 for second, etc., the Sooners totaled 2,466 to Maryland's 2,415.

Oklahoma and Maryland are all by themselves at the top of the rankings now that Michigan has been shelled from the unbeaten list. The Wolverines, onetime leaders and third last week, tumbled to seventh after being upset 25-6 by Illinois.

Michigan Is Seventh

Michigan State, beaten only by the Wolverines, replaced Michigan in a move from fourth. The Spartans got 44 first place votes and 2,051 points. UCLA, Notre Dame and West Virginia (the only other major unbeaten club left) followed the leap-frog advance past Michigan.

Texas Christian, 10th last week, jumped to eighth although idle last Saturday, while Texas A&M and Ohio State moved into the top 10 to replace Georgia Tech and Navy. Tech was tied 7-7 by Tennessee. Navy was held to the same deadlock by Duke.

Pimlico Meet Will Open November 16

PIMLICO, Md. — The final lap of the Maryland racing season will begin at Pimlico Nov. 16 and the 16-day session will conclude on Saturday, Dec. 3.

The Pimlico Special tops the list of attractions offered by the Maryland Jockey Club although the Pimlico Futurity will be the richest stakes event.

The Futurity, with an estimated gross of $80,000 of which about $70,000 will go to the winner, is at a mile and a sixteenth for two-year-olds and is scheduled Saturday, Nov. 19. The Special, to which outstanding handicap runners and top three-year-olds are invited, is down for decision on Saturday, Nov. 26, and is to be contested at a mile and three-sixteenths. The purse is $50,000 of which $40,000 goes to the victor.

Post time for the fall season has been set for 1 p.m. daily and the daily double will close at approximately 12:50 p.m. each afternoon. With eight races scheduled, programs should be completed by 4:30 p.m.

GIOVANELLI BEATS PEREZ

NEW YORK (AP) — "You gotta keep busy. If I get enough fights I'll be up there fighting for the welterweight title in a year."

That's what handsome Danny Giovaneli said today following his second straight victory in a little over a week at St. Nicholas Arena. Subbing for the injured Chico Vejar last night, the rangy, 23-year-old Brooklynite came on with a rush from the fourth round on to rack up a unanimous 10-round decision over Danny Jo Perez, an old rival from New York's west-side.

The Monday before, Giovaneli walloped Italy's Paola Melis in another television 10-rounder.

Two and a half years ago, Giovaneli stopped Perez in the sixth round on cuts over the left eye. The same thing almost happened last night. Perez was cut over the left eye in the second round and bled the rest of the way.

Referee Mark Conn and Judge Joe Agnello scored it 7-3, Judge Al Singer 6-3-1. The AP card had Giovaneli in front 5-4-1.

Giovaneli recorded his 28th victory against five defeats. Perez's record now is 16-6. Giovaneli weighed 150½, Perez 151.

Three Red Wings Are Leading Scorers

NEW YORK (AP) — Providence's forward unit of wingers Zello Toppazzini, Camille Henry and center Paul Larivee continue to lead the American Hockey League scorers today.

Toppazzini leads the scorers with 28 points on 14 goals and 14 assists. Larivee follows with 24 points while Henry shares third place with Willie Marshall, who returned to the Pittsburgh Hornets from the Toronto Maple Leafs, each having 20 points. Ken Wharram of the Buffalo Bisons is fifth with 19. Toppazzini is the leader in goals scored while Larivee leads in assists with 17.

Fred Glover of the Cleveland Barons added four minutes to his penalty lead and tops the league with 58 minutes.

Hank Bassen, Buffalo's 22-year-old goaltender in his second season as a professional, leads the goaltenders with a 2.77 average on 36 goals allowed in 13 games.

Frank McCormick To Coach Redlegs

CINCINNATI (AP)—Frank McCormick, the great first baseman for the Cincinnati Reds in their plucky years, today was signed as a Redleg coach.

McCormick replaces Dick Bartell on the Redleg coaching staff. Bartell resigned before the close of the season saying that he wanted to get a manager's berth in the minor leagues.

The Redlegs also announced the resigning of coaches Jimmie Dykes and Tom Ferrick and trainer Wayne Anderson.

DOGS

DOGS IN THE NEWS

The fastest traveling dog in the world is probably Major Fritz, a German shepherd mascot for the 146th Fighter Interceptor Squadron of the Pennsylvania Air National Guard.

According to current news stories, he's been shot at in the air during a tour of duty in Korea, had to make two parachute jumps, and once made a flight riding in a specially constructed under-the-wing tank outside the plane.

However his title of world's fastest traveling dog comes from the fact that his present owner, Lt. Lynn A. McKinney, flies a Republic P-48 Thunderbolt, jet fighter bomber of the type that broke the transcontinental record with a speed of 652 miles an hour.

But a story of another kind currently making the rounds is probably feeling even more space than the news of this speedy canine.

It seems that a little boy was just closing the deal for a newly weaned puppy. He had picked the one he wanted from the litter and was preparing to depart when the kennel owner had a moment of doubt. "Oh dear," she said, "perhaps I shouldn't let that one go. I'm not really sure he is big enough to eat yet."

A look of alarm came over the little boy's face. "Gosh, lady," he said, "I don't want to eat him—I love him."

And in Myrtle, Mississippi, Gordon Simmons, trainer of shooting dogs, says you can judge the temperament of a dog just as you can a man—by looking at his eyes.

"There are six dogs, just as there are six people," he says. "And you can recognize them in the same way—by noting the way they look at you."

The practice of using dogs for police patrol is one that has long been encouraged by people who know dogs and their capabilities. But in recent months the idea seems to be taking hold increasingly.

Central Park in New York City is a natural place for the use of dogs for patrol purposes and recent experiments have shown them to be as effective as ex-cops. The criminal who has lain in wait for late night passersby and then escaped into the thickets is no longer safe from being followed.

Their use for night patrol in huge stores like Marshall Field's in Chicago and Macy's in New York has proven that they are as effective inside as out. For here they accompany the night watchmen on their rounds and when they have passed through a department it is a sure bet that no thief is hiding behind the clothing racks or under a counter.

A recent meeting of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the Commission of Dearborn, Mich., reported on the effectiveness of dogs used for patrol purposes there.

The story was told of how a

2 ARMY STARS OUTSTANDING IN ANY ERA

(The following story was written especially for AP by John E. Sauer, now serving his first season as coach of The Citadel football team.)

By John E. Sauer
CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — Somebody said I wrecked the Notre Dame passing attack in the famous game with Army in 1944, the Blanchard-Davis era at West Point.

This isn't exactly true. I did pick off three of the passes thrown by Ed Danowicz, the Notre Dame quarterback, but I didn't run any of them back for touchdowns or anything. I just had a good day on defense, that's all.

We beat Notre Dame 59-0 that day and this was as big a thrill for me as anything in a long time.

Lads Red Blak

I first went to West Point in 1943. Freshmen could play on the varsity football team then and we finished in three years, so I had three years of football under the man I admire more than any coach in the country — Col. Earl (Red) Blak.

Although Col. Blak comes from Dayton, Ohio, which is also my home town, I did not know him and had never met him until I went to West Point. I met him the first time when I went out for the football team.

He and my dad had known each other. My dad played football at Miami of Ohio at Oxford and Col. Blak coached there the year my dad was a senior. Then Col. Blak went to West Point. Incidentally, my dad was a better football player than I was.

All-American Any Time

When I got to West Point I played quarterback and both half-backs. Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis were the stars of the team. Those two are as fine a pair of players as I ever hope to see. I absolutely believe they would have been All-Americans at any time although some people say the war had weakened the caliber of football in those days.

I played service ball one year at Fort Benning, in 1946, and then in 1947 I went back to West Point as backfield coach under Col. Blak. While I was coaching with him, the one big thing that impressed me was his organizational ability. I had learned this originally as a player under Col. Blak.

My experience with him taught me many of the details that I am using in my first head coaching job at The Citadel. I used what he had taught me when I was an assistant coach at Florida and with the Los Angeles Rams.

The only thing I can say of my playing days at West Point is that I might have got to play more had not Blanchard and Davis been there. But with those two boys — well, it was a real honor to play with them.

Dearborn police department dog held four men at bay while an officer left him and walked a long block for a patrol car. When he returned the men hadn't budged an inch.

Many cities are now recognizing that to combat crime in thickly settled areas they must return to the foot patrolman rather than depend on the cruising patrol car. But with higher salary scales this is a pretty heavy burden on most police budgets.

If, by the use of dogs, the number of foot patrolmen needed can be cut down dogs will again have helped to lighten the burden on their human friends.

VALDES, BAKER FIGHT DEC. 7 TO PICK CHALLENGER

NEW YORK (AP) — Nino Valdes and Bob Baker, about the best challengers the heavyweight division has to offer these days, will decide who gets the next shot at Rocky Marciano's crown in an elimination bout at Cleveland Dec. 7.

Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club, revealed last night that the winner would be the next to have the privilege, if not the pleasure, of trying to whip Marciano.

No date or site for the title match was indicated, but after Marciano's last defense — in which he Ko'd Archie Moore Sept. 21 — it was thought fight fans probably would next get a look at the Rock in action in June.

Baker, No. 3 among the contenders in the last ring ratings, and Valdes, No. 4, have figured along with the unpredictable Hurricane Jackson and the promising young Floyd Patterson as the only likely challengers after Moore failed to dent Marciano's unbeaten record.

Jackson Was Beaten

Patterson, just 20 years old, wasn't considered seriously since he's the top challenger for Moore's light-heavyweight title and is being groomed for a heavyweight try no earlier than 1957. Jackson, 23, was removed from the eligible list when beaten recently by Jimmy Slade.

Valdes, a big Cuban was considered the No. 1 contender a year ago. But then the 6-3, 31-year-old husky was toppled by losing decisions against Moore and Bob Satterfield. Valdes has been fighting since 1941 and has won 34 of 47 bouts.

Baker, 28 and 210 pounds, supplied one of Valdes' defeats. The 6-3 Pittsburgher decided the Cuban in a 10-rounder in May, 1953. That was one of nine straight victories for Baker, who's been around since 1949. Three of his five successes this year, however, have been over the not-so-hot Rex Layne.

Baker has won 42 of 46.

HOWELL IS PILOT

SAN JUAN, P. R. (AP) — Dixie Howell, reserve catcher for the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers, is managing the Mayaguez-Aguadilla team in the Puerto Rican baseball league. Mickey Owen, Boston Red Sox coach, is running the Ponce team. Ben Geraghty, ex-Dodger infielder and Jacksonville, Fla., pilot, is at the helm of Caguas-Guayama; George Genovese, who had Willie Mays at Trenton, N. J., in 1950, is San Juan pilot and Herman Franks, 1955 New York Giant coach, is handling Santurce.

STARS AS FILL-IN

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Coach Tom Triplett of Muhlenberg found a brilliant sophomore reserve in Dick Cornish of Washington, N.J., when the Mules regular quarterback was forced out with an injury. All Cornish did in his first starting assignment was play 60 minutes against Albright and throw three touchdown passes of 30, 77, and 72 yards in a 26-13 victory. Besides, he gained 238 yards on offense and made five tackles on defense.

SENATORS AND RED SOX PULL 8-PLAYER DEAL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Senators today traded pitcher Bob Porterfield, first baseman Mickey Vernon and two other players for five Boston Red Sox players.

Also going to Boston are pitcher Johnny Schmitz and outfielder Tommy Umphlett.

In return, the Senators will receive righthanded pitcher Richard Brodowski, Alpheus Lee Curtis Jr., and Truman E. Clevenger, and outfielders Karl Olson and Neil B. Chrisley.

President Calvin Griffith of the Senators said Olson will be Washington's centerfielder and Chrisley, who played with Nashville of the Southern Assn. last season, probably will play left field.

Vernon Ex-Champ

The veteran Vernon batted .301 in 150 games last season and has a lifetime major league average of .287 with 139 home runs.

Vernon won the American League batting crown in 1946 with a .353 average and in 1953 with a .337 average. He has been selected for the American League all star team five times.

The New York Yankees traded Porterfield, 31, to Washington in June, 1951. This past season he worked in 30 games, compiling a 10-17 won and lost record and an earned run average of 4.45.

Schmitz won 7 and lost 10 games for the Senators, for whom he worked in 32 games last year. He had a creditable earned run average of 3.76.

Umphlett As Spare

Umphlett, who probably will be used as a spare outfielder and pinchhitter, is returning to the Red Sox, for whom he played centerfield in 1953 before being traded with Maurice McDermott to the Senators for Jackie Jensen. Umphlett's 1955 batting average was .217 in 110 games. Olson is a right handed batter with power who appeared in only 25 games last year.

Clevenger, Curtis and Chrisley were all out on option during the past season, Clevenger winning 9 and losing 13 at Louisville, where Curtis won 12 and lost 8. Chrisley hit .320 in 120 games for Nashville. Brodowski made 16 relief appearances last season for Boston after two years of Army duty. His record was 1-0.

SNUFFY LED TAR HEELS

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP) — George (Snuffy) Stirmweiss, who managed the Binghamton, N. Y., Triplets in the New York Yankee chain during 1955, was captain of the 1939 University of North Carolina football team. The Tar Heels won eight, lost one and tied one that season. Snuffy led the American League hitters in 1945 with a .309 average as Yankee second baseman.

GETTING TO BE A HABIT

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — When Oklahoma beat Texas 20-0 in the Cotton Bowl this season it marked the fourth straight win for the Sooners over the Longhorns. Oklahoma now has beaten Texas 18 times in 50 games. Two were ties. The shutout was Oklahoma's fifth over the Texans.

TRA TO MEET IN MIAMI

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — General managers and officials from the country's major race tracks will meet in Miami on Dec. 5 for the 14th annual TRA meeting. Highlight of the dinner to be held on the final night, Dec. 8, will be the awarding of honors to owners of the leading horses of the 1955 campaign.

QUARTER CENTURY

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — Edward R. (Butch) Slaughter is a 25-year man at the University of Virginia. The former University of Michigan All-American guard (1924) came to Virginia in 1931 after five years as line coach at North Carolina State. He assists Coach Ned McDonald with the Cavalier line.

HUSKY MOUNTAINEERS

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (AP) — Coach Art Lewis of West Virginia can field a football team that averages 215 pounds on the line and 206 pounds in the backfield. Despite the bulk the Mountaineers are fast.

SKUNKS AWAY

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Assigned to a "skunks under the house" complaint, Patrolman John Sheffield returned with this report: "Skunks gone, odor remains."

Adams County four senior high school football teams will wind up the 1955 campaign with important games this week.

Friday night the Gettysburg High Warriors invade Hanover while Littlestown tangles with Delone, at McSherrystown, in games which promise to attract overflow crowds. Biglerville sticks to its usual Saturday program and entertains Kennard-Dale on the Cannors' field at 8 o'clock.

Hanover, Delone and Biglerville are pre-game favorites to win with the Cannors being given the widest advantage.

27th In Series

The Gettysburg-Hanover contest will mark the 27th in the series between the schools. The Night-hawks, boasting an 8-1 record this season, hold the edge with 15 triumphs against 10 for the Warriors. One game resulted in a tie, the 1932 7-7 contest. Last year the Hawks trounced the Warriors 33-0.

Wib Gobrecht's Littlestown Thunderbolts, are in for a busy evening at McSherrystown. The Bolts, whose only blot is a 7-6 decision by Red Lion, will be required to meet a thoroughly rested Squire outfit who were idle last week. Delone, with one of its best teams in years, sports a 5-2-1 mark. Littlestown's record is 7-1.

Biglerville, 4-4, is expected to have little competition from Kennard-Dale on Saturday. The York Coumbians have dropped four straight Laurel Conference games while the Cannors hit their peak in crushing Dallastown Saturday 51-14.

Collegians In Action

Two Gettysburg College football teams will be in action this week. Jim Lentz's freshmen, winners of their two previous games, finish against Stevens Trade, 3-2, at Lancaster Thursday afternoon.

The Bullet varsity journeys to Westminster to tangle with Western Maryland Saturday afternoon.

ISRAEL TO ASK ARMS FROM U.S. U.S.S.R. CRITICAL

JERUSALEM (AP) — Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett will go to the United States this week to renew Israel's bid for arms.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman explained the request arises from renewed Israeli-Arab border clashes and efforts by the Soviet bloc to penetrate the Middle East through arms and economic aid for Arab states. He said:

"Previously, we had been favorable to a limitation or restriction of armaments to the Middle East. Now we ask for the right to a balance in armaments."

He made it clear Israel now wants arms equal to the reported multimillion dollar shipment Egypt has begun receiving from the Czechs.

Despite Lack Of National Issues Voters Eye Today's Elections For 1956 Trends

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Contests for governor of Kentucky and mayor of Philadelphia drew the most attention in off-year elections today to fill state, county and city offices.

Although national issues were lacking, the balloting was watched for some hint of possible trends in voter sentiment.

Sharing interest with candidate scraps was an Ohio referendum on a proposal that would clear the way for a supplemental layoff pay plan negotiated by Ford and General Motors with some 700,000 CIO auto workers.

The only congressional contest involved Michigan's 15th—Detroit District where 21 candidates battled in a primary for places in a Dec. 13 special election to fill a House vacancy caused by the death last September of Rep. John D. Dingell, Democrat.

Aside from scores of city elections, state legislatures were being chosen in Kentucky and Virginia, now firmly in Democratic hands, and in New Jersey, where the legislature long has been Republican-controlled.

Mississippi Formality
Mississippi was electing a governor, but this was a formality. J. P. Coleman, Democrat, won the primary and had no Republican opposition today.

Most political experts figured the Democrats would retain the Kentucky governorship and Philadelphia's City Hall.

Some of them, however, had doubts about Kentucky where a deep Democratic split was expected to help the Republican candidate.

The Democratic candidate for governor of Kentucky is A. B. "Happy" Chandler, former governor, senator and baseball commissioner. Chandler is trying for a political comeback after 10 years. His Republican opponent is Edwin R. Denney, former U. S. attorney for Eastern Kentucky. Under state law, Democratic Gov. Lawrence Wetherby could not seek reelection.

Predict Wide Victory
Chandler leaders predicted victory for their man by upwards of 100,000 votes. Denney captains forecast his triumph by 25,000 to 60,000.

The Democrats split this year in a bitter primary campaign. Chandler won nomination over the combined opposition of Gov. Wetherby's state organization and Sens. Barkley and Clements. Those three later pledged support to the Democratic ticket.

Also on the Kentucky ballot was a state constitutional amendment which would lower the minimum voting age from 21 to 18. Only Georgia now allows 18 year olds to vote.

Philadelphians were deciding a race for mayor between Democrat Richardson Dilworth, 57, former district attorney, and Republican W. Thatcher Longstreth, 35, an advertising executive. Both call themselves liberals.

Other Contests
In 1951 Dilworth helped Democratic Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr. oust the Republicans from City Hall for the first time in 68 years.

Also electing mayors or city councilmen were Boston, Cleveland, Indianapolis, and many smaller cities in Arkansas, Connecticut, Indiana, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Utah and Wyoming. Some of these were nonpartisan elections.

The Ohio referendum, climaxing a fight between labor and employer groups, was on a proposal which would put into effect next June 1 auto industry agreements, negotiated earlier this year. Under these pacts employers would augment state unemployment compensation payments to give a jobless worker 60 to 65 per cent of his usual take-home pay.

The main condition was that rulings permitting the dual payments must be obtained from states in which two-thirds of a company's employees work. Enough states have already okayed dual payments to make them effective for the auto industry, if Ohio voters approve.

DRIVING RANGE HELPED
NEW YORK (AP) — Doug Ford, who has earned more than $32,000 in golf prize money this year, says in his book "Start Golf Young," that he got his chance because of his father's driving range near Van Cortlandt Park. Ford says: "When he moved to an indoor range I went over whenever I had the chance. It was there that I found out what a pleasure golf is — even on a big city driving range."

HOWELL IN 19TH YEAR
NEW YORK (AP) — Coach Jim Lee Howell is in his 19th season with the New York Giants. After his playing career ended in 1948 he served as an end coach under Steve Owen. This is Howell's second year as head coach. Jim is 41.

STATE PAROLEE SENTENCED FOR THEFT, FORGERY

TOWANDA, Pa. (P) — William R. Mack, a parolee from the Rockview State Penitentiary, has been sentenced to a total of 2 to 12 years on additional charges of car theft and forgery.

Mack, who pleaded guilty to the charges, was sentenced late yesterday in Bradford County Court. It was stipulated that he must first finish his earlier sentences for check forgery and prison break.

Mack received a one to five year term and a fine of $100 on charges of stealing a car at Athens and a one to seven year term and a fine of $100 for cashing a forged check at the Ulster (Pa.) National Bank. Both towns are located in Bradford County, of which Towanda is the county seat.

His sentences are to run consecutively.

Mack, 34, of Bentley Creek, New York state police following a car chase at speeds up to 100 miles an hour that began in Waverly, N. Y., just across the border from Athens.

About a week previous, he had been picked up in Johnson City, N. Y., but escaped.

Mack, 34, of Bentley creek, Bradford County, had been paroled from Rockview State Penitentiary after serving parts of terms for forgery, attempted prison break and prison break. His last escape was in August, 1949, when he was recaptured within a short time. He had been paroled in 1954 and his parole was to have ended in 1961.

MONTREAL (P) — Sandy Amoroso, whose great catch helped preserve Brooklyn's World Series shutout in the final game, earned his chance to play with the Dodgers by leading the International League in hitting in 1953. He added .353 for Montreal. His manager was Walter Alston.

PROPOSED BILL ASKS HOW G.M. GREW SO BIG

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (P) — T. K. Quinn, businessman and author, told senators today "General Motors is entirely too big."

"It unwittingly threatens the very existence of countless good companies and eventually our own free American institutions," Quinn said in a statement prepared for the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee at the opening session of a four week "study" of GM, the world's largest manufacturing firm.

Quinn proposed a maximum free enterprise bill designed to restrict the size of large corporations and possibly to persuade them to break up. This, said Quinn, is the way to deal with what he termed the "giantism issue." He said this is the "pressing, dreadful issue" facing the country.

Former Veep At G.E.

Long a critic of large corporations, Quinn formerly was a vice-president of the General Electric Corp. He now is head of two small firms, T. K. Quinn Co. and Monitor Equipment Corp., in New York. He has written a number of books, including "Giant Business; Threat to Democracy" and "I Quit Monster Business."

Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo), presiding over the hearings, has said they are not an investigation of GM. But he said the subcommittee wants to try to find out how GM grew so big and to look into complaints that GM has exerted undue pressure on its dealers and suppliers.

Quinn said the legislation he has in mind would be aimed at "limiting and restricting oversized corporations" and restoring "economic freedom in many fields that are now practically closed."

$100,000,000 Or More

In general, Quinn said such legislation would define an oversized company as one with perhaps 100 million dollars or more in net worth. In certain high-capital industries, such as autos and steel, a 200 or 300 million dollar ceiling might be allowed, he said.

Quinn said the "enormous pur-

She was married to John Supinsky after her husband, Walter Choroba, was declared legally dead. chasing power" of GM and its large advertising outlays give it strength that he said is unhealthy for the country.

Aside from car manufacture, Quinn said, GM "could at will enter any field it chooses and become even more industrially dominant."

JANOWICZ MAKING GRADE

WASHINGTON (P) — Vic Janowicz, who failed in his attempts to make the big leagues as a catcher with Pittsburgh, has found his mark in big league football. In his first four games with Washington's Redskins he scored 40 points to lead the National Football League scorers. He scored four touchdowns, kicked two field goals and made 10 extra points in 11 attempts.

A-BOMB COULD EXPLODE EYES DOCTOR STATES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The flash of an atomic bomb 40 miles away could convert certain fluids of the human eye "to steam" and literally cause an explosion of part of the retina, an Air Force doctor said today.

Such "burns" inside the eye can be "very severe at near distances," Col. Victor A. Byrnes told the 62nd annual convention of the Assn. of Military Surgeons of the United States. The convention's theme is "Medical Defense in the Nuclear Era."

Byrnes said one case of "bilateral central scotomata"—a blind or dark spot in the visual field of both eyes—was reported among the survivors of the Hiroshima bombing. But he said it is possible that there were more. If the bomb had been exploded at night there certainly would be more because the eye, with the pupil wide open to see in the dark, would be more susceptible to such burns, he added.

Fluids Turned To Steam

"This energy absorption," Byrnes told the military doctors, "produces coagulation of the tissues and mechanical destruction of the choroid and retina by converting the tissue fluids to steam and thereby exploding the retina."

The choroid and retina are pigmented layers beneath the eye's surface.

"The distances at which these burns may occur are much greater than those at which any other harmful effect of nuclear weapons may occur," Byrnes said.

Traveler Didn't Hear The Whistle

NEW YORK (AP)—Edward Mulstey, 54, returned today from a 20-day ocean voyage to Europe which he said he made accidentally—because he forgot his hearing aid.

Mulstey said he boarded the liner America here last Oct. 20 to celebrate the departure of some friends, a couple who had sold their Bronx tavern and were going to retire in Ireland. Mulstey didn't realize when the ship sailed, he said, because he couldn't "hear the warning whistle blow because I left my hearing aid at home."

At sea, he cabled back for funds, and went ahead to enjoy the trip anyhow.

Locusts In Egypt Reminder Of O.T.

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Locusts swarmed over Cairo today in an assault reminiscent of the plagues of Biblical days.

They invaded the western part of the city, attacking trees and vegetation.

In past years, Egyptian Agriculture Ministry anti locust squads have destroyed the invaders before they entered the lush Nile Delta. But this year's invasion, one of the worst in memory, seems to have got out of hand.

PHILADELPHIA ELECTING NEW MAYOR TODAY

By BILL LOFTUS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Philadelphia voters chose a new mayor today, highlighting the off-year local elections in Pennsylvania. Local issues have dominated the campaigning in the absence of any statewide contest.

In Philadelphia, more than 980,000 voters were eligible to ballot. Most observers thought there might be a 70 per cent turnout despite the rainy, cold weather predicted by the Weather Bureau.

Succeeds Clark

The voters had to pick between Democrat Richardson Dilworth, a 57-year-old seasoned campaigner making his second try for the mayoralty, and W. Thacher Longstreth, 35-year-old former advertising executive making his first race for public office.

The winner succeeds Democrat Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr., first of his party to hold the office in 67 years. A win for Dilworth would give Clark a strong position in seeking the party's U. S. Senate nomination against Republican incumbent James H. Duff next year. Clark did not seek reelection.

Malone Has Every Chance

Dilworth has pledged to continue the Democratic-claimed accomplishments of the Clark administration, if he's elected. Longstreth, self-styled "liberal" Republican with the backing of national Republican officials, has pledged "progress without waste." The two have debated 18 times, used television extensively and filled out their campaigning with street corner rallies for Dilworth and sidewalk stumping for Longstreth.

Across the state in normally Pittsburgh area, two races have attracted attention with the results

TOAST THEIR MEETING

U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, right, and Pres. Tito of Yugoslavia toast each other with slivovitz (plum drink) as they meet on Tito's island retreat of Brioni, off Yugoslavia Sunday. Tito and Dulles called for the restoration of independence to Soviet Russia's European satellites. Tito's stand made clear his views toward other states in Eastern Europe were not changed by the visit of Soviet leaders to Belgrade last May.

liam Sterbinsky and Mrs. Hattie Dorsey.

The November monthly meeting of the Indian Lookout Conservation Club was held in the fire hall. It was announced that more rabbits were released in this area to provide better hunting. A shooting match for the benefit of the club will be held on Nov. 20 at the Civic Grounds east of town. A feature of the shoot will be the large number of turkeys offered as prizes. There will also be other prizes. Again this year free "hunting by permission" signs will be distributed to land owners. The next meeting will take place on Nov. 29.

Residents of the Hampton Valley-Eyer's Valley section learned that one mile of paved hard road will be constructed in each area. It is understood that this improvement will follow the road past Rainbow Lake, the town reservoir.

Wife Is Unaware Hubby Is Candidate

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Shively councilman B. A. Muenninghoff may have retrieved a lost vote in today's elections.

Unopposed for re-election, he told yesterday of a conversation he had with his wife. They discussed the election and their viewpoints on candidates and issues.

Then Muenninghoff asked, "By the way, are you going to vote for me?"

Mrs. Muenninghoff replied with surprise, "Oh, are you running?"

Asked if his wife would vote or him, Muenninghoff answered, "She didn't commit herself."

EXAMINE FAULTY RESERVE PLANES

WASHINGTON (AP)—An investigator for a House Armed Services subcommittee has been sent to Dallas to investigate complaints that Navy Reserve pilots are being required to fly unreliable planes.

A committee staff aide said Monday the complaints are as yet unverified, but that an investigator was sent to Texas because the reports came from what was regarded as a "responsible source."

The plane involved is the Grumman F9F7 "Cougar," an advanced jet model, the aide said.

According to the complaint, naval reservists contend the Navy has assigned the planes to reserve training although they have been rejected for fleet use.

The committee expects no report for at least four or five days. Chairman Hebert (D-La) was out-

SALK VACCINE REDUCES POLIO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Surgeon General Leonard Scheele said Monday that results of using Salk polio vaccine this year "give strong evidence that children who receive even one dose were substantially protected against paralytic polio."

"Preliminary data show," he added, "that paralytic attack rates in vaccinated children have been lower by 67 to 90 per cent than in unvaccinated children of the same ages."

He gave the appraisal in an address prepared for the 62nd annual convention of the Assn. of Military Surgeons of the United States.

Elimination Predicted

He predicted the eventual elimination of paralytic polio as "another triumph of preventive medicine and public health," which he said have made progress also against other diseases.

"It would seem then," he added, "that in another generation—two or three decades hence—the population of the United States could be as free of venereal disease, tuberculosis, paralytic poliomyelitis, rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart disease, and the complications of streptococcal infections as it is today from smallpox, typhoid fever, yellow fever and malaria."

holding possible statewide significance.

Republican Dist. Atty. James F. Malone is given an even chance of reelection against former U. S. Dist. Atty. Joseph Boyle in the heavily Democratic county. Malone has been talked up as a possible U. S. Senate or gubernatorial candidate in upcoming elections.

In the Allegheny County commissioners' race, the name of Howard B. Foster has been substituted for the late Harry W. Fowler on the Democratic slate. Republicans are charging that Foster's running mate, John Kane, is not physically capable of serving. Kane says his doctors have given him a go-ahead to seek reelection. The two top commissioner candidates of the same party form the majority of the three-man board which governs the county.

Elsewhere in the state voters will choose 28 mayors in communities where Republicans now control 20 of these posts. The other eight are held by Democrats. City Council members and others also will be elected.

Two Other Deaths

Two other deaths have occurred among county commissioner candidates. In Lackawanna County—Scranton, Republican Henry C. Spencer, a 54-year-old state legislator, died Thursday. The county solicitor, Philip F. Mattes, a Democrat, ruled Spencer's name would stay on the ballot in the normally Democratic county. If Spencer were elected, Mattes ruled, the Orphans Court Judge, Otto P. Robinson, a Republican, would name Spencer's replacement.

In Republican Lancaster County, Democrat Harry Goodhart, 65, a produce dealer died Saturday and the ruling on his case was the same.

Big Four Resume Sessions Today; Molotov Says He Is Bringing "Better Baggage"

By JOHN HIGHTOWER
GENEVA — Western leaders eagerly awaited the return of Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov to the Big Four conference table today, their interest whetted by his remark he was bringing "better baggage."

They believed his three-day talks in Moscow had softened Russia's opposition to the early reunification of Germany.

American authorities also speculated he might be ready to put a more friendly face on Russia's attitude toward President Eisenhower's proposal for reciprocal aerial inspection of military installations in the United States and the Soviet Union — while renewing the Soviet demand for prompt outlawing of atomic weapons.

Molotov, who went to Moscow last weekend and participated in the celebration of the Bolshevik revolution anniversary, indicated there last night he might be bringing new proposals to Geneva.

"Heard Many Things"

Answering a question at a Kremlin reception, he said:
"I arrived in Moscow with good baggage and I am leaving with even better baggage because I heard a good many things here."

Told of Molotov's remark Soviet

Set Deadline For Carbon RR Debate

HARRISBURG — The Public Utility Commission today set Nov. 22 for final argument in Harrisburg on allocation of costs to improve a "dangerous and inadequate" Carbon County railroad underpass.

The PUC earlier this year upheld a complaint by the brotherhood of Dinkey Memorial Church, Ashfield, that the underpass taking state Rt. 895 below Lehigh Valley Railroad tracks in West Bowmanstown is not wide or high enough for safe use.

After the State Highways Department prepared improvement plans at the PUC's direction, the railroad requested the argument to determine whether it should be required to pay any of the costs.

Award Contract For Rt. 73 Extension

HARRISBURG — The State Highways Department awarded a $414,942 contract yesterday for the construction of four miles on Rt. 73 between Hanover Square and Zieglerville in Montgomery County. The award went to the Worthington Construction Co., Line Lexington.

At the same time, the department awarded a $209,337 contract to the Blue Mountain Construction Co., Grantville, for the resurfacing of three miles on Rts. 6, 362 and 660 northwest of Wellsboro, Tioga County.

WHITE BUZZARD

WHITE HOUSE, Va. (AP) — K. W. Harland, of Richmond, bagged a big white bird on the Pamunkey River. It was identified as a white buzzard and the only one anyone in this area could remember. Albinoism occurs in almost all species but is rare in buzzards.

Premier Bulganin commented with a smile, "That is exactly right." Molotov added he thought it possible for the Geneva meeting of foreign ministers to produce an East-West agreement, saying, "Why should we have gone to Geneva if we did not think we could reach agreement?"

"Of course," he continued, "there will be certain difficulties on some questions. But you know the Russian proverb, 'Moscow was not built in one day.'"

Whatever the Russian's next move may be, it seemed clear the conference was going into a critical phase and that Germany was the heart of it.

German diplomats converged on Geneva to share the climax.

$20,000 A WINK

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP) — Trainer George P. (Maje) Odum of Nail, winner of the Belmont Futurity, says the horse winked at Mrs. Anson Bigelow of Palm Beach, Fla., at the 1954 Saratoga yearling sales. It was then that Mrs. Bigelow bid in the grey colt for $20,000. Mrs. Bigelow is the former Josephine (Fifi) Widener.

The population of the world increases about 100,000 a day, says the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization.
